English Activities:

Write a letter or postcard to somebody, this could be a friend, relative or even teacher!

Write a play script and act it out to other people.

Read out loud to someone. Remember to read with expression.

Can you invent something new? Perhaps a gadget or something to help people? Draw a picture and write a description.

Start a nature diary. Look out of the window each day and keep note of what you see. Birds, flowers, changes in the weather, what else?

Build a reading den. Find somewhere cosy, snuggle up and read your favourite book.

Watch a film and write a review of it. Did you enjoy it? Why? Why would you recommend it?

Make a book and write and illustrate your own story.

Use this website to inspire some writing. On it, there are 365 pictures to choose from. Each comes with some writing activities for you to do, which can include improving sentences, writing stories and more. <http://www.pobble365.com/>

Maths Activities:

Use a dice or create your own addition and subtraction sums. Use column method or number line to complete.

Cook or bake something following the instructions and weighing and measuring out all the ingredients.

Using sweets, chocolate, pizza or cake find fractions and share with your family!

Go on a shape hunt around your house and garden, make sure you look for 2D and 3D shapes and find the number of edges and faces.

Topic Activities:

Anglo Saxons and Vikings

2 web based resources (above)

Make a Viking Long Ship model (folded template/ instructions attached).

Write a diary entry as if you were an Anglo Saxon child.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zxsbcdm/articles/zq2m6sg>

Design and make an Anglo Saxon house – out of anything you want.

Research anything to do with Anglo Saxons and Vikings and make a poster or presentation about it.

Design and make an obstacle course at home or in the garden. How fast can you complete it?

Use an old sock to create a puppet. Can you put on a puppet show for someone?
